ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL

DONATELLA MONTERISI and WOLF LEETZ

"When shall we three meet again?"
With these words William Shakespeare began his drama, Macbeth, but to students at Orange High School they signal not only the beginning but an end.

On campus this year have been Donatella Monterisi of Rome, Italy, and Wolf Leetz of Berlin, Germany. Brought here largely through the efforts of the OHS chapter of the American Field Service, they have admirably assumed their new identities as Panther seniors, class of '60. Each Orange Highan has been impressed by the personal charm and candor of Wolf and Donatella, who by simply being themselves have convinced their American friends that Europeans can be—one with us.

The student chapter of the American Field Service has made a marked contribution to campus life by stimulating interest in the exchange student program and by originating ingenious methods of raising support. Nan McGintie has presided over chapter meetings; Pat Myracle has been chairman of financial drives, which will culminate next fall in the appearance of more students from abroad; Kathy Young has been social chairman.

When school bells ring for the last time in June and cries of "See you next year" sound across campus, Donatella and Wolf must remain silent.

"When shall we three meet again?" each Orange student might ask them, for indissoluble bonds of mutual friendship and respect have grown this year; and a return to "Panther Days" of 1960 will be impossible.

"When shall we three meet again?" Only as we turn page after page of this ORANGE AND WHITE, which is dedicated to Donatella and to Wolf, to the AFS committee, and to the whole effort of furthering friendship and understanding between young men and women of all nations, shall we—meet again.

Introduced to American farm life as practiced in the Ag department, Donatella and Wolf relax on the fence.

Laughing with Donatella and Wolf are AFS committee members L. Middleton, D. Bosch, S. Kleiner, S. Olsen, P. Myracle, J. Schroeder, N. McGintie, K. Young, W. Kerrigan, E. Workman, B. Arnett, N. Hull, S. Herckt, S. Newsom, S. Eggers, J. Eggers and D. Nelson.

Flames . . . voracious flames stab the midnight air . . . Angry fingers of the sea snatch at the cliffs . . . Swirling mists swathe the black of night as three weird sisters dance around a cauldron.

Thrice the brinded cat hath mew'd.
Thrice, and once the hedge-pig whin'd
Harpier cries; 't is time, 't is time.
Round about the cauldron go.

In their eerie gyrations around the charmed pot, the witches concoct in mystic alchemy a potion that transforms the lives of those who fall under its magic spell.

Fillet of a fenny snake
In the cauldron boil and bake . . .

Enchantment brews. Destiny stirs.

Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.

William Shakespeare has recorded this scene from Scottish moors in his distinguished drama Macbeth.
The ORANGE AND WHITE of 1960 is a folio in which have been recorded the magical ingredients that, poured into the charmed cauldron of high school years, have transformed the life of each one whose footfall has echoed through the halls of Orange.

Fire burn and cauldron bubble . . .

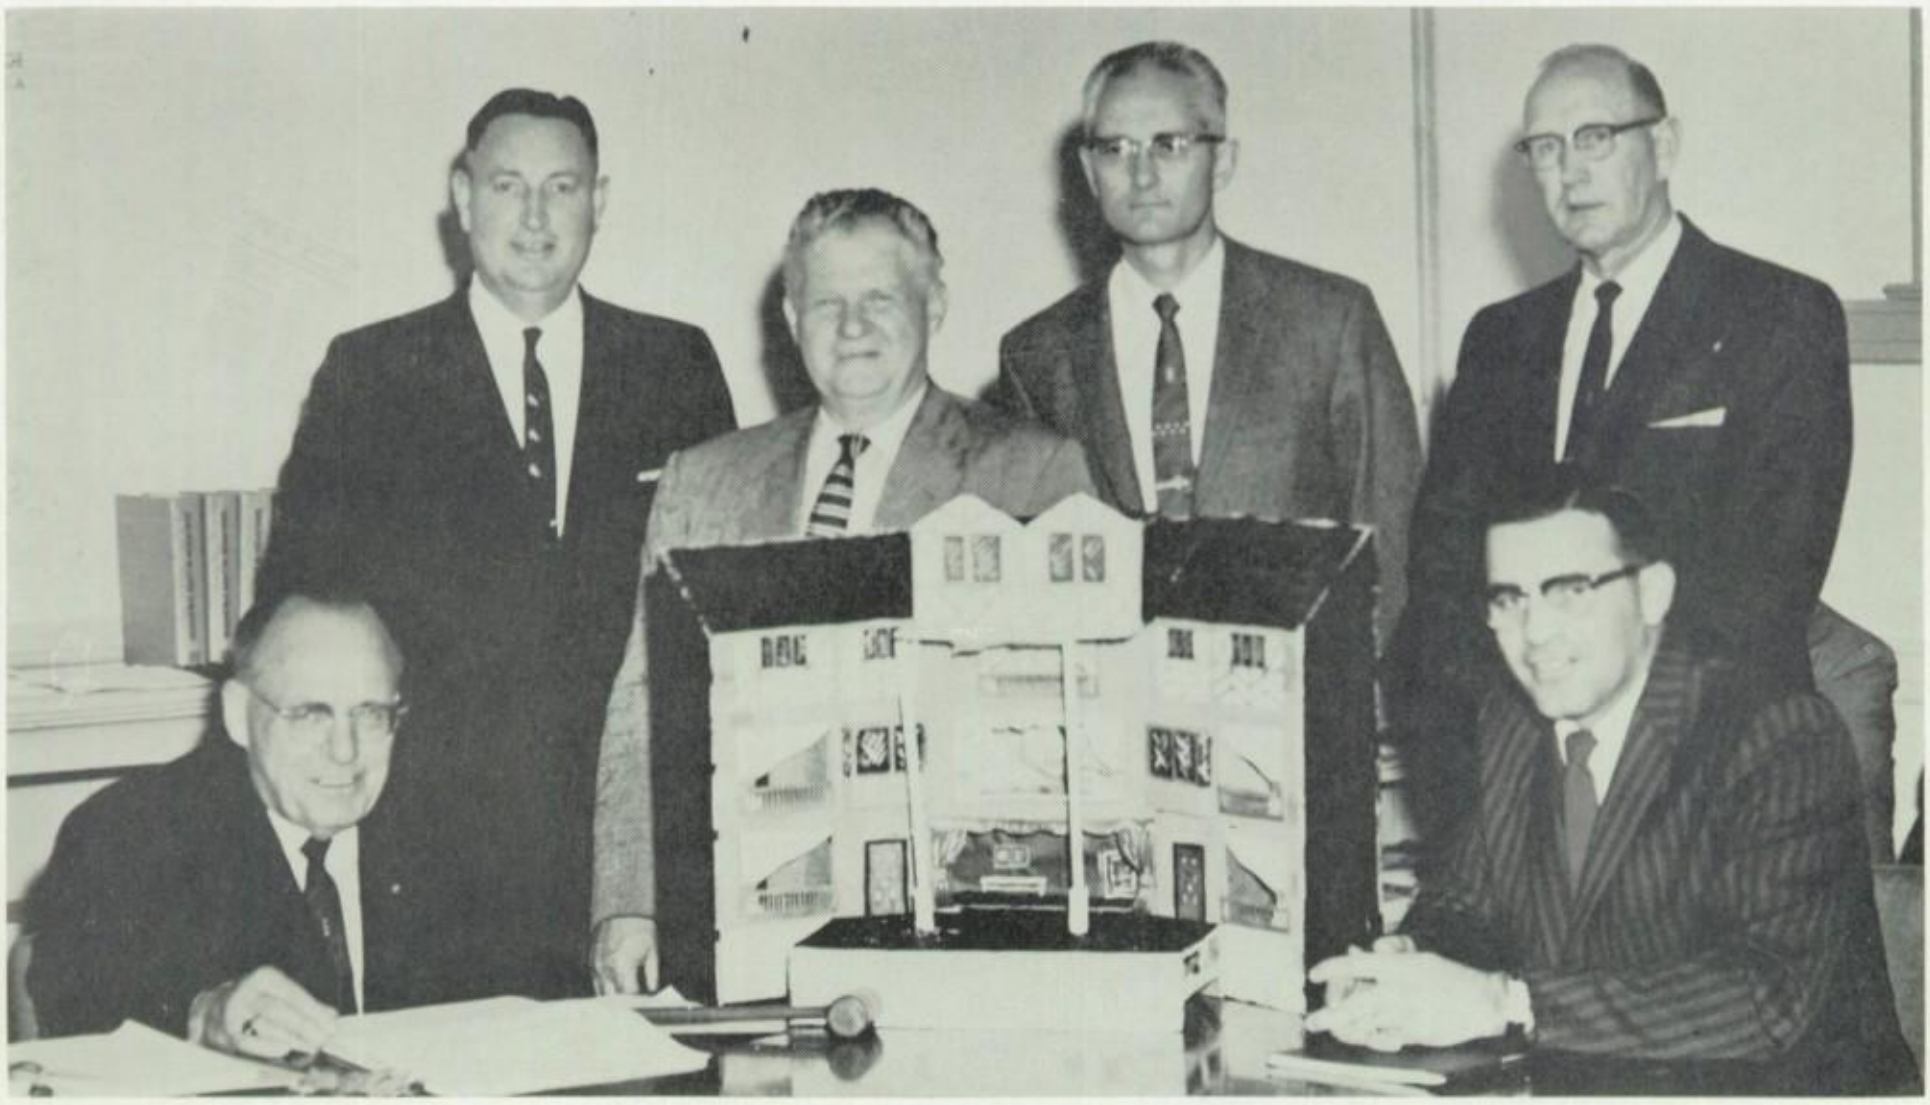
ADMINISTRATION

Behind the scenes producing the play



Shakespeare has invaded even the board meetings. Shown here with a model of the Globe are members Alfred Dierker, Bert Skiles, Victor Lobdell, Gordon Bishop, Kenneth Rohrs and Harlan Smith.

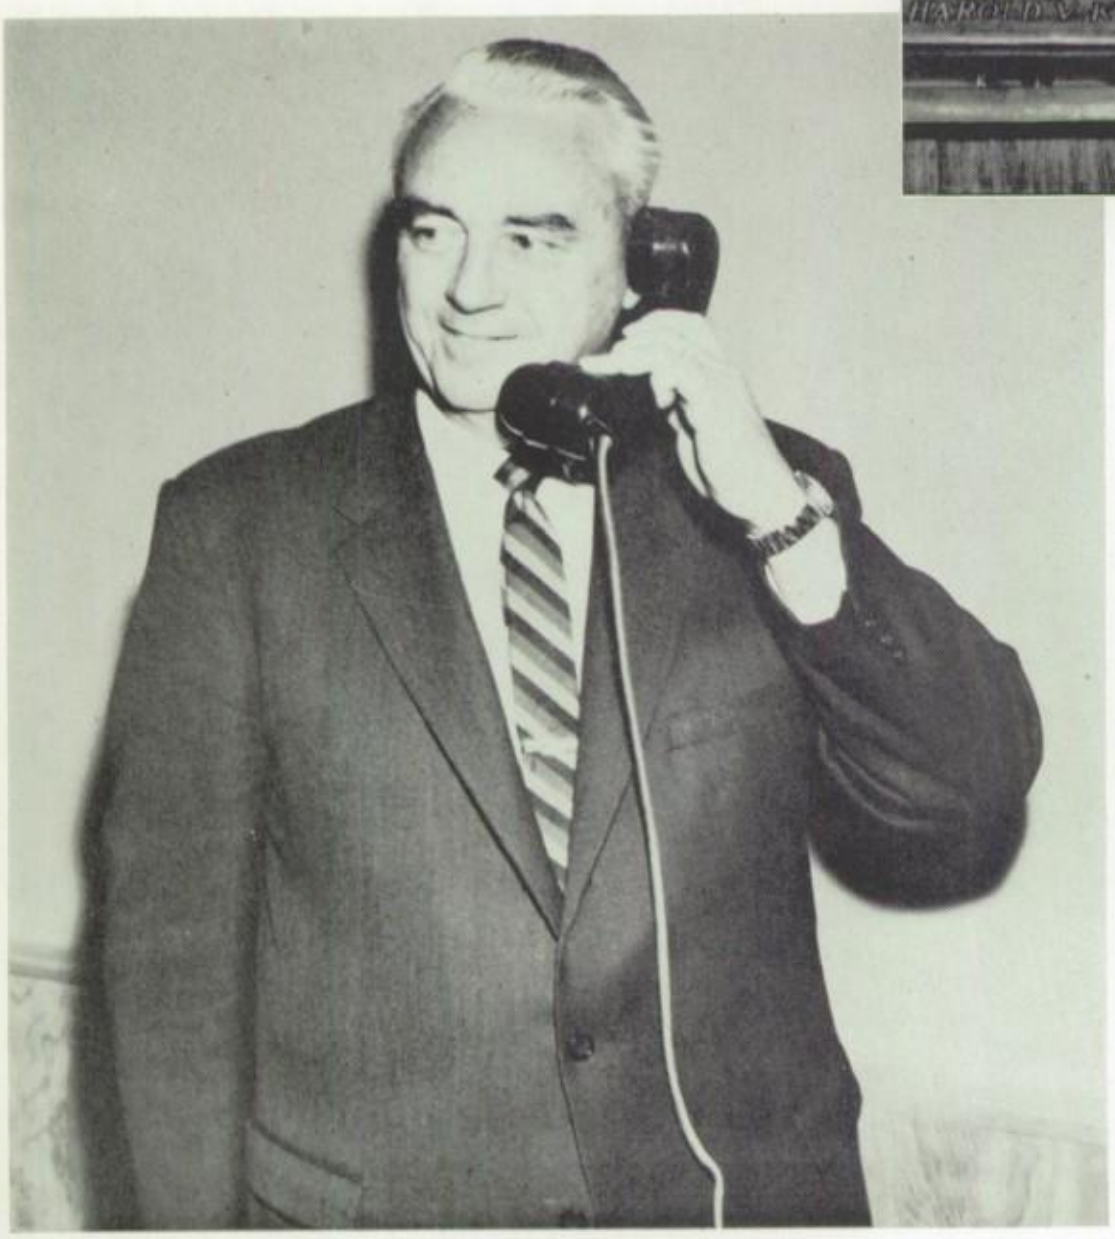
Controlling expenditures, personnel, plans and policies for the Orange Unified School District, the board of education produces "the greatest show in Orange." Heading the decision-makers is Mr. A. E. Dierker, president of the board, who is an oil distributor for General Petroleum of Brea. Mr. F. Bert Skiles, clerk of the board, is manager of Consolidated Orange Growers. Other members are Mr. Gordon Bishop, personnel manager at Anaconda; Dr. Harlan Smith, optometrist; Mr. Victor Lobdell, real estate broker; Mr. Kenneth Rohrs, rancher; and Mr. Laverne Schaner of Tidewater Oil Association.

and directing the cast are capable men

MR. HAROLD KIBBY

Superintendent Harold Kibby graduated from San Jose State College and received his Master's degree at USC. Coming to Orange in 1937 as a business teacher, he became vice-principal of OHS in 1942 and principal of the school in 1948.

In 1953 he was promoted to his present position as superintendent of the Orange Unified School District.



Principal Verrill A. Townsend received his B.A. at Arizona State and his M.A. at USC. He has taught and served as an administrator in Orange since 1935.

Mr. Townsend was principal of Walnut School from 1947 to 1950 at which time he was named principal of Orange Junior High School. He has been the top administrator at Orange High School since 1954.

MR. VERRILL TOWNSEND

guide and serve . . . behind the scenes

Senior Dennis Kirkpatrick has no problem that could not be resolved by OHS counselors Mr. George Olds, Mrs. Jeanette Christopher, Mrs. Helen McConnell, Miss Grace Robertson and Mr. Floyd Dunning.

Comparable in their capacity to backstage prompters, the counselors help all OHS students plan their programs and prepare for an uncertain, complex future. Their duties extend beyond the academic field of program planning, test interpretation and career guidance into the realm of helping students with personal problems.

Mrs. Helen McConnell earned her M.A. degree at Colorado State College and, a newcomer to Orange, handles freshmen and junior girls. Mr. Floyd Dunning, who received his M.A. at Oklahoma University, counsels freshman and junior boys. Mrs. Jeanette Christopher counsels sophomore girls. Miss Grace Robertson, girls' vice-principal, advises senior girls. Mr. George Olds has an M.A. from Whittier College and is sophomore and senior boys advisor. Mr. William E. Montanna, boys' vice-principal, received his M.S. at USC.

A staff meeting in Principal Verrill A. Townsend's office brings Mr. Andy Edwards, head custodian; Miss Grace Robertson, girls' vice-principal; Mrs. Dora Pierce, principal's secretary; Mrs. Doris Holman, bookkeeper; Mr. Townsend; Mrs. Marjorie Liggett, switchboard operator; and Mr. Bill Montanna, boys' vice-principal.

We salute those who with dedication,

MR. JAY CUMMINGS

Known to almost every student in Orange High School as the genial, efficient keeper of the student store, Mr. Jay Cummings, commercial teacher at OHS for 34 years, is retiring.

Kansas-born Mr. Cummings worked his way through college and came to Orange to teach, by his own estimate, more than four thousand students in two generations. He was faculty advisor for the ORANGE AND WHITE for fifteen years. Few instructors at Orange have had such an influence or such an opportunity to mould the traditions of a high school as he. Mr. Cummings plans to continue his bookkeeping work as well as his hobbies; hunting, fishing, painting and studying the financial news will make his an active retirement. "Mainly, I plan to do as I please," he says; "but I want to be away from home when school time rolls around again next September."

The ORANGE AND WHITE salutes Mr. Jay Cummings, a veteran teacher, a perceptive artist, a witty conversationalist, and a great, good friend of students through the years.

buoyancy and warm friendliness teach us

MRS. JEANETTE CHRISTOPHER

Call, "Chris," and the woman who looks up and grins is that jack of all trades, Mrs. Jeanette Christopher. Under her direction THE REFLECTOR has won five Freedom Foundation awards for the "promotion of the credo of the American way of life," All-American honors three times, and "best all-around newspaper in Orange County" three times. At least thirty of her former students have made careers of journalism.

Long a teacher of the fourth estate as expressed in THE REFLECTOR and the ORANGE AND WHITE, Mrs. Christopher has stamped her own credo in the mind and character of each of her students. An example herself of all she affirms, "Chris" insists that each journalist be dependable, loyal, accurate, courageous and humorous. "Leave them laughing," she says —and even she who has undergone radical surgery twice recently still does just that.

The ORANGE AND WHITE salutes Mrs. Jeanette Christopher, linguist, dramatist, author, orator, journalist, teacher, counselor, diplomat and friend.

mark student government in action while

CHARLIE CABRERA, JON WIRTH, JOAN MARKUSON and DENNIS KIRKPATRICK foster a clean campus as part of the first semester legislature campaign.

Called to order by vice-president KEN WEISINGER are first semester legislature members C. Kassahn, S. Smith, S. Swedberg, R. Alaux, S. Olsen, S. Herckt, T. Gray, C. Cabrera, J. Pentecost. In the second row are A. Wheeler, J. Miller, S. Norton, J. Markuson, S. Flores, J. Asachika, J. Wirth, B. Beebe, R. Camp, M. Harvey. In the third row are K. Shaw, B. Stiff, D. Buskirk, K. Rodieck, L. Acting as the lower house of student government, the legislature has dealt handily with the litter problem on campus and raised quorum requirements from two-thirds of the members to three-fourths in order to have more representatives discuss and make decisions on legislation.

Student Body Vice-President Ken Weisinger, in his capacity as chairman of the group, initiated an amendment to the constitution that would regulate the number of song and yell leaders to be elected at the end of each year and limit selection to individuals rather than to teams. Following classroom deliberation each member casts his vote on such legislation.

Dick Stockman illustrates the magic transformation an actor undergoes under the skillful hand of a make-up artist.

Mrs. Mary Buchoz and Mr. Robert Edwards directed the senior class play.

"I refuse to fall off that couch backwards! Frontwards, okay, but not backwards!"

"I promise to scream the night of the play, but I just cannot do it now."

"I'm not an old man and I cannot act like one, ever!"

. . . and then there were

With an eerie murder mystery to present and literally ten little Indians to work with, directors Mrs. Mary Buchoz and Mr. Robert Edwards spent a thousand and one hours convincing cast members that they could fall off that couch backwards, scream during rehearsals and act like an old man NOW.

Ten little Indians crashed ominously, a mysterious voice accused and nerves shattered as Ken Biser warned the maid, Judy Brubaker; as Dick Hayes grappled with Mike Morris; as Linda Todd, Mike Morris, Janice Wolfe, Dick Stockman, Steve Swedberg, Dick Hayes, Doug Nelson and Ken Biser watched Dean Duncan collapse and as Steve Swedberg and Dick Stockman connived.

Linda Todd, as the spiteful Emily Brent, tells Janice Wolfe a thing or two about how a secretary should act and dress.

Rehearsal nights were long — sometimes long enough to include the Newport Pier at midnight— but were always full of laughter.

Three April evenings of actual performance were short—time flies in the grip of highly polished drama.

"Ten Little Indians"

Excited cast members in the flush of deserved praise knew they would "walk the boards" together for a long time to come in their memories of "our senior class play."

Janice Wolfe and Mike Morris played the romantic leads in "Ten Little Indians."

Senior superlatives, chosen not by the annual staff but by the students of the senior class themselves, represent perhaps the greatest tribute to personal achievement any given senior may receive from his classmates.

Those selected above are those who received the greatest number of votes. Many seniors were edged out of the honor by only one or two votes, which would indicate that the class of '60 is composed of many superlative seniors.

The most sparkling personalities at OHS belong to vivacious GRAHAM GILMER and effervescent CECELIA MUSCH.

Sweat-soaked, bruised, and tired, Varsity players recuperate from first half play and plot strategy for the next quarter of play.

The Orange High Panthers emerged from the season with fewer wins than injuries, which eliminated six of the first string players. However their basic strength was demonstrated by the results of the Homecoming game with Buena Park. With an unexpected 21-14 victory over the Coyotes, the local Varsity finished the season with a flourish.

Total passes attempted and completed in four games was five for eleven.

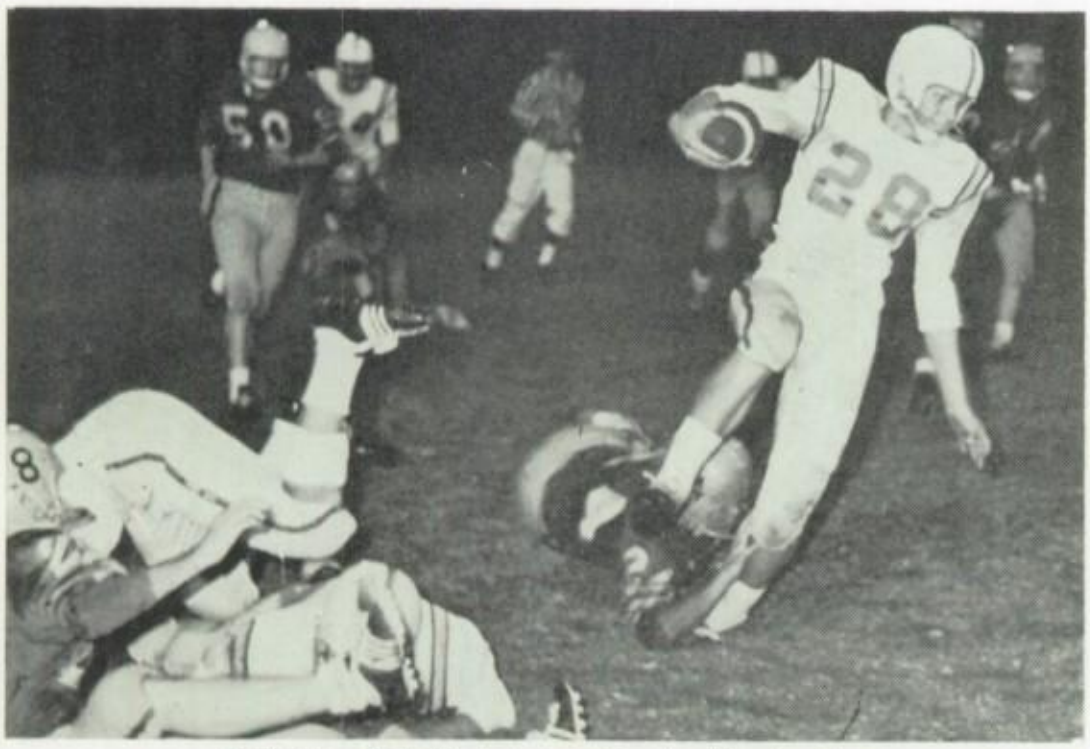
Most yards in one game by rushing by an individual was Dave Valentine's total of 156 yards in game against Brea. Most yards in one game gained passing by individual was Dave Valentine's 89 against Valencia.

Most first downs for a team in one league game was 11 against Brea.

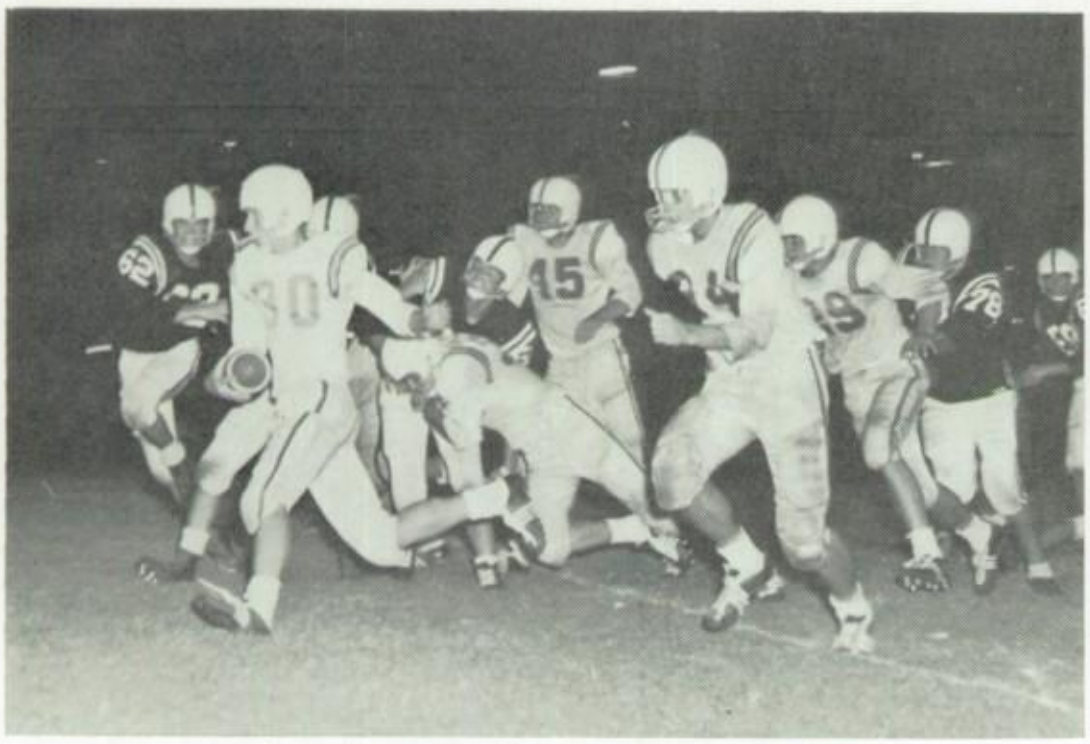
Longest run was 84 yards by Jack Selman in game against Valencia.

Shouting "Let's Go!" Panthers rush out of the locker room and onto the turf. Whistles, bands and the concerted roars and applause of a capacity crowd thunder an accompaniment.

Coordination, skill and timing, poetry

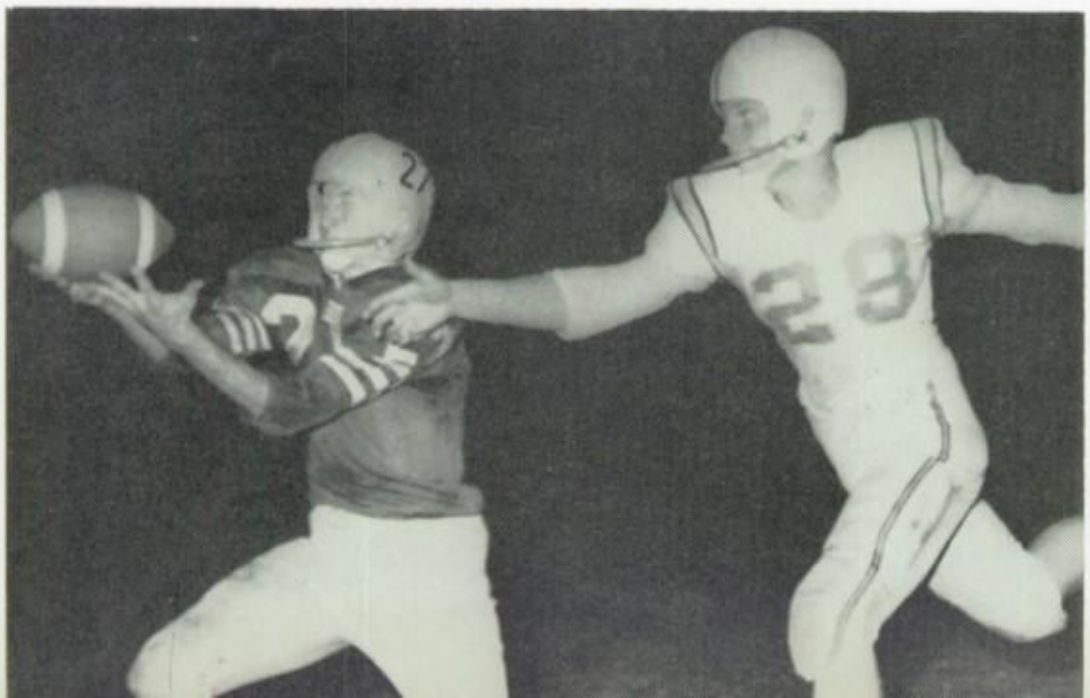


Trying to elude the bone-crushing tackle of a Brea linesman, Dave Valentine squirms, wrenches and writhes as his ankle splinters.



As his teammates run his interference, Jack Selman scoots around left end and heads for pay dirt.

Only gravity stands in the way of Dave Valentine's flying attempt to intercept a Brea pass.



Orange High's varsity football squad, the "hard luck team of the year," gave local fans one of the most nerve-wracking seasons they have ever seen.

The Panthers started league play with the poorest record of any league team. They had bowed to Tustin, 20-6 in their first game, won the next game against Valencia, but lost halfback Jack Selman with a broken foot in the process.

Next was Brea, a 21-0 loss that crippled the Panthers with the injury of quarterback Dave Valentine and left end Gary Gunther. Non-league play was ended with an uneventful loss to Laguna, 12-6.

In league play, the handicapped gridders continued on their established path. Bolsa Grande shrapped the Panthers 42-6; Rancho whipped them 12-7. The first home victory was over Westminster, 7-6. In another home game Santa Ana Valley whomped the squad, 33-0.

This was the condition of the Panther team on the night of November 20, Homecoming. Orange was pitted against Buena Park. The Coyotes, with a record marred by only one defeat, were rated a cinch to in action, mark the predatory Panthers.

step on the Orange team and grind their heels. But Orange's Dave Guenther drew first blood, scoring on a reverse off left tackle.

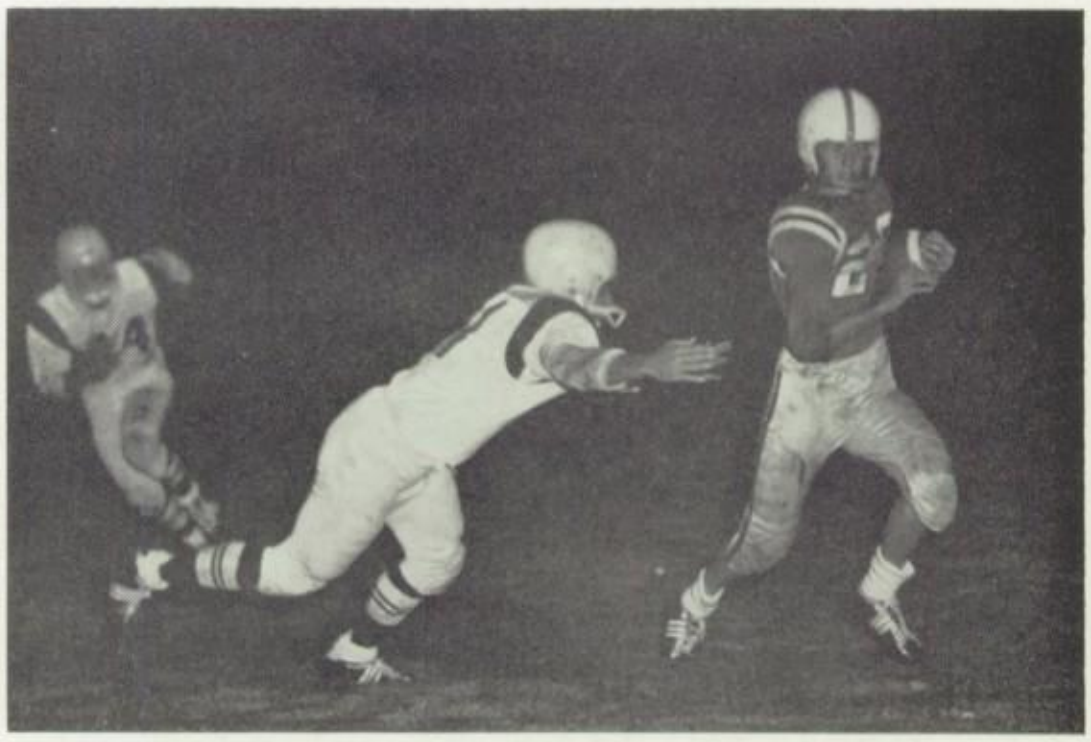
In the second quarter, Buena Park threatened the Panther goal three times. After an exchange of punts and with three minutes to play, Orange's Dave Pierce ripped off left guard on a trap play and sprinted 40 yards for the touchdown. Vic Roberts made the second of three perfect conversions.

Buena Park fought back savagely before the half ended, scoring on a sweep that covered four yards. The score was 14-7 at the half.

Fighting back in the third quarter, the Coyotes managed to make it 14-14 by moving the ball on short gainers.

Finally, in the fourth quarter, after holding Buena off within their own 25 yard line, Richard Becker of the Panthers scampered 85 yards off left guard for the final TD. Vic Roberts wrapped it up with the conversion.

Thus the team which had been quoted as 66 point underdogs released the exultant fans on the town with a 21-14 triumph.



To the cries of "Go! Go!" "Where? Where?" Pat McKee sprints out of the reach of a Westminster opponent.

Outnumbered by the opposition, Dave Valentine makes a desperate attempt to shake a host of Brea tacklers who are on a "togetherness kick."

Mike Miller has designs on a fleeing Brea Wildcat, as he asks, "How does this grab you?"

The Junior Varsity, which many think only an amusing prelude to the "big game," gave OHS a trophy this year. Unscored against in league play up to the eve of their title game with Santa Ana Valley, they crashed down the Falcons with a smashing victory 21-12. The championship crown was theirs!

these were the passports to conquest.

The junior grid stars started the season with a win over Tustin 7-6. Orange was scoreless until the third quarter, trailing the Tillers 0-6. A long pass to right half Joe Cole from quarterback Lee Hobbs set up a hand-off to Dave Pierce for the tally. The odds were reversed by the conversion, making the score 7-6.

In the next game the JV's hit their lowest point in a tie with Brea-Olinda 20-20.

Next they defeated a highly-touted Buena Park squad 6-0. The game with Bolsa Grande was a high point of the season. Orange scored first in the second quarter on a seven yard run by Sam Vance. Joe attempted the conversion but missed by inches. Later in the same quarter sophomore quarterback Lee Hobbs connected on a 37 yard pass to Cole in the end zone for a touchdown. Cole kicked the extra point making it 13-0 at the half.

In the fourth quarter Dave Pierce received a pass from Hobbs and carried it to the one yard line. Joe Cole went over for the touchdown and then kicked it over for the final point, making the score 20-0.

On the eve of their title contest with Santa Ana Valley, the Panthers were unscored against in league play. They had lost one star player, Dave Pierce, to the needy Varsity, but their strength was unchallenged. They crashed down on the Falcons and came out with a 21-12 victory.

The JV's football season indicated that the Orange Varsity next year would again be in the running for league honors.

The Bee gridsters' schedule tells the story of their mixture of ups and downs, as they won and lost alternate games.

They finished the season with three wins, four losses and one tie. The experience gained through the year will prove invaluable for those who will play varsity next year.

Orange High is a school with a basketball reputation to be upheld. When all else fails, it is usually the basketball team which injects spirit into the student body with performances that can create the desire to get out and support the team. This year was no exception. From the start Coach Hamer knew that he had another potential championship team.

In the league opener the Panthers threw a scare into the fans by bowing to Newport Beach 62-57. They came back to defeat Western 77-49. In the next game Orange was no match for Santa Ana's height and lost 61-34. The next loss to Brea-Olinda gave some rooters serious doubts about the Panthers' potency. They should have reserved their opinions, because the hoopsters were on their way with a 35-32 win over Rancho in the next game.

Smoldering spirit began to emerge as the casabans streaked forward, bouncing Bolsa Grande 42-40 and vanquishing Valley 51-39. Win followed win with only two losses on the record as Orange finished league play second to Buena Park. Perhaps the secondary spot was not ideal, but it was the Panthers' ticket to CIF play.

the varsity responded

What followed was a series of the most stroke-provoking, laryngitis-inducing battles possible. Few teams and rooting sections can endure the panic and hysteria of three one-point victories in a row in the all-important CIF playoffs.

In the opener with San Dieguito the Panthers edged the Mustangs 46-45. In the next outing against San Diego the hoopsters scared a thousand boosters, winning by that bare one point margin again 64-63. It was in this game that the Panthers reached the high point of integrated team-play, something they had been striving for all season.

Next was Cantwell and the quarterfinals. Rooters packed into Hod Chambers gymnasium developed the screaming meemies as the Panthers eked out another one-point victory, 46-45. The semi-finals at San Marino proved to be the end of the line for the valiant Panthers. They bowed out with a 74-51 loss.

Coach Walt Hamer is carried on the shoulders of his team.

Throughout the season the local casabans were blessed with a group of individuals who had the ability, desire and team spirit that was necessary.

Forwards Dave Miller and Jake Ritter were the most potent pair in the league. Dave was selected for the Freeway League and CIF first team. Jake is on CIF second team. Bill Joiner, the "hustler" of the Panther five is also an all-league star. Bill Viel came up from the ranks to first team to contribute heavily to victory after victory. Juniors Steve Healy and Jim Schroeder and sophomore Ken Pendergraft will form the backbone of next year's varsity.

Cashing in on teamwork, Steve Healy snatches the ball from his Buena Park opponent but misses the lay-in. Bill Viel completes the play with a successful hook shot.

The Junior Varsity hoopsters finished the season with a record of ten wins and eleven losses. However, the fact that they won eight out of their last eleven games, after losing eight of the first ten, indicated that the hard-working Panthers were making good use of their secondary status to gain the experience needed for another top-notch varsity team next year.

The record shows that Coach Dick Stock has built up a team which can successfully maintain Orange High's record of basketball achievement.

Orange High's cross country team met with varied success this year. The Varsity had a three-three record good for fourth place. The junior varsity fared better, winning all six of their meets.

Led by distance man Bob Delaney, the OHS cross country team finished fourth in the Freeway League race. Freshman Bill Delaney and sophomore Jim Ellis proved to be up-and-coming distance men as both finished in just about all the meets.

Bob Delaney and Chuck Hankins, who along with other notables will return next year, give promise of a championship team.

The Orange High varsity nine had clutch trouble throughout the season. When the key plays were needed, Orange didn't make them. The untimely error, walk and strikeout have plagued them in every game.

The squad looked good in its last few outings and lost a well-played game to Bolsa by a 2-1 score. King, who gave the Matadors only four hits, has come on strong as a hurling prospect and was converted to a starter late in the season.

Sparkle and polish were added to the CONCERT BAND'S appearance as its goal for six thousand dollars worth of new band uniforms was met after a vigorous campaign by the students and their parents.

Led by drum major Manuel Felix, the Orange High School concert band participated in the annual Santa Ana and Anaheim Halloween parades. They provided color and verve to halftime intermissions at football games. They performed for Highans as well as for special groups of elementary school children.

Patty Panther–KAY DOTSON–has climbed right up into the spirit of OHS as the varsity mascot.

These human stimulants

With music on their brain, pep in their hearts and the beat in their feet, the Panther PEP BAND combines musical skill with unflagging enthusiasm. Their dum-de-de-dum at rallies and varsity games has been a real pepper-upper, proving that they are well-named.

Manuel Felix is the first junior ever to hold the position of drum major. To him, "the band is like a football team for both require cooperation among the players."

Dauntless Patty Panther, exemplifying the spirit of Orange High, served as mascot and prowled the fields and courts at games, looking for mischief and fun.

excite Panther spirit to greater heights.

Casual viewers are often beguiled by the simplicity of the routines and the grace of each motion, but hours and hours and hours of bending, turning, marching, twirling have preceded the display upon the field; and any fear of dropping that baton or of getting out of step in front of all those people is forgotten in the joy of helping to arouse school spirit.

Even flags get snagged. Waiting for BONNIE CHADWICK to tape it up are flagtwirlers PAT MYRACLE, PENNEY FIKE, SHEILA NEWSOM, KATHY CEBULA, PAT WAGNER, CAROLYN DENBOW and LINDA DRAVES.

P. Cornecl, A. Danley, and J. Miller are shown as the Scattertones.

"Bluebells, cockle shells, evy, ivy over," sing the Bluebells K. Shaw, P. Hartley, W. Dowcett, C. Hineman, and B. Cady.

"There's music in the air," as the Songsters C. Ashford, N. Masteller, L. Corder, C. Wilson, B. McKinney, blend their voices in the singing of popular songs and old familiar ballads.

New honours come upon him,

Like our strange garments, cleave not to their mould

But with the aid of use.

Responsibilities . . .

Secretary MARILYN JONES

Treasurer MARSHA WALTON

On the path to seniority a junior's third year in high school is one of preparation for that big step to fourth year supremacy.

Juniors are essential in varsity sports. They fill many club offices. They have a say in important decisions and can be depended on for foresight and leadership abilities. They keep in mind during times of trials and tribulations that next year they will be in full control and will be excused first at assemblies.

Advisors for the junior class are MR. ELLIS HACKETT, MISS CATHERINE DOHERTY, MR. FRANK CHAMBERLIN, MRS. NANCY RACINE and MR. JOHN ROWE.

Secretary JUDY MOORE

Treasurer CLOIS COOK

One step above being freshmen, yet not quite upperclassmen, sophomores yelled at games, attended school functions, joined new clubs, strove for good grades—but were still sophomores.

Sophomores have more wisdom than freshmen, more to learn than juniors and two years more than seniors to accomplish their high school goals.

Chatting on the lawn are sophomore advisors MR. WILLIAM HEIDEMANN, MR. WALTER HAMER, MISS ALFRIEDA HULL, DR. CALVIN BARNETT and MR. HAROLD BROWN.

sophomore talent shines - outstanding

President EDDIE CURTIS lays the plans for the sophomore carnival before the steering committee members. Seated around the conference table are: C. Cook, J. Moore, J. Winn, B. Cady, M. Goodnight, S. Mayfield, S. Eggers, D. Buskirk, N. Hull. Standing behind them are: N. Cruz, N. Hart, L. McClurg, S. Smith, C. Kassahn, S. Boone, B. Gable, C. Hineman. Near the wall are: L. Cornett, F. McCandless, R. King, L. Hobbs, C. Paddock, R. Poulson, C. Hoffmaster, P. Hawkins.

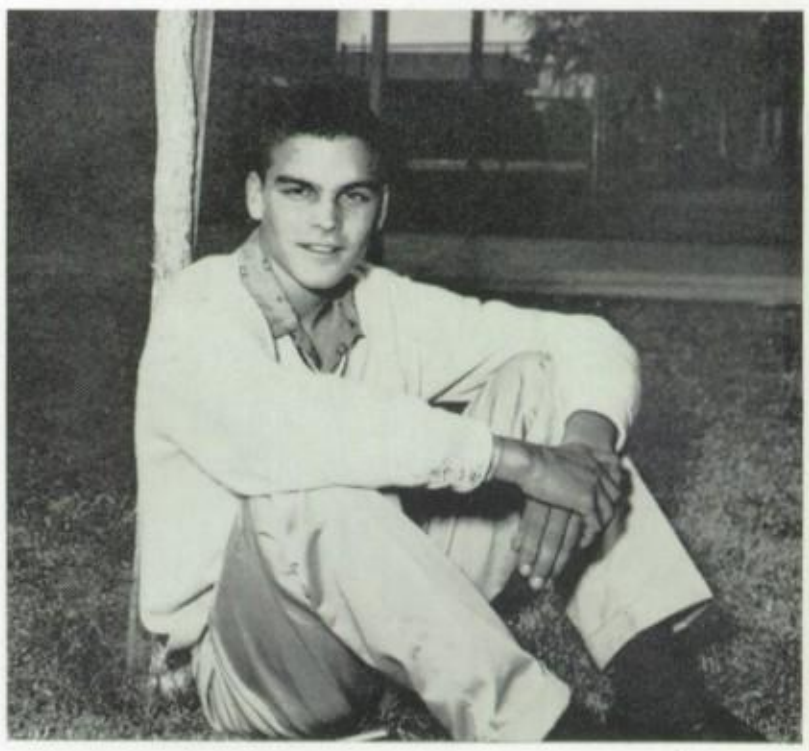
Vice-president ROGER CAMP

Four years . . .

Secretary KATHY POWELL

Treasurer ROD CAMP



A senior once wrote in a freshman's annual, "If you think your first year at high school was great, just wait until you are a senior."

Jaunty in their new role as high school students, freshmen have found that high school has exceeded their brightest expectations.

but how quickly the first one disappeared

These freshmen have had the exclusive distinction of being the largest freshman class ever to enroll at OHS, the distinction of being the last freshmen ever to attend Orange High and the disadvantage of being the lowest class again next year.

"Magazine sales should begin about then," says HARRY TAKENO to members of the freshman class steering committee as they pour over master schedule cards. Beside him sit C. Frantz, E. Workman, G. Parsons, S. Moore, S. Corder, C. Nelson, S. Fairbairn, K. Lawson, K. Powell. Behind them stand D. Bowman, J. Flores, Roger Camp, A. Cervantes, Rod Camp.

O well done! I commend your pains;
And every one shall share i' th' gains:
And now about the cauldron sing,
Like elves and fairies in a ring,
Enchanting all that you put in.

WATCH IT BEING MADE BEFORE YOUR EYES

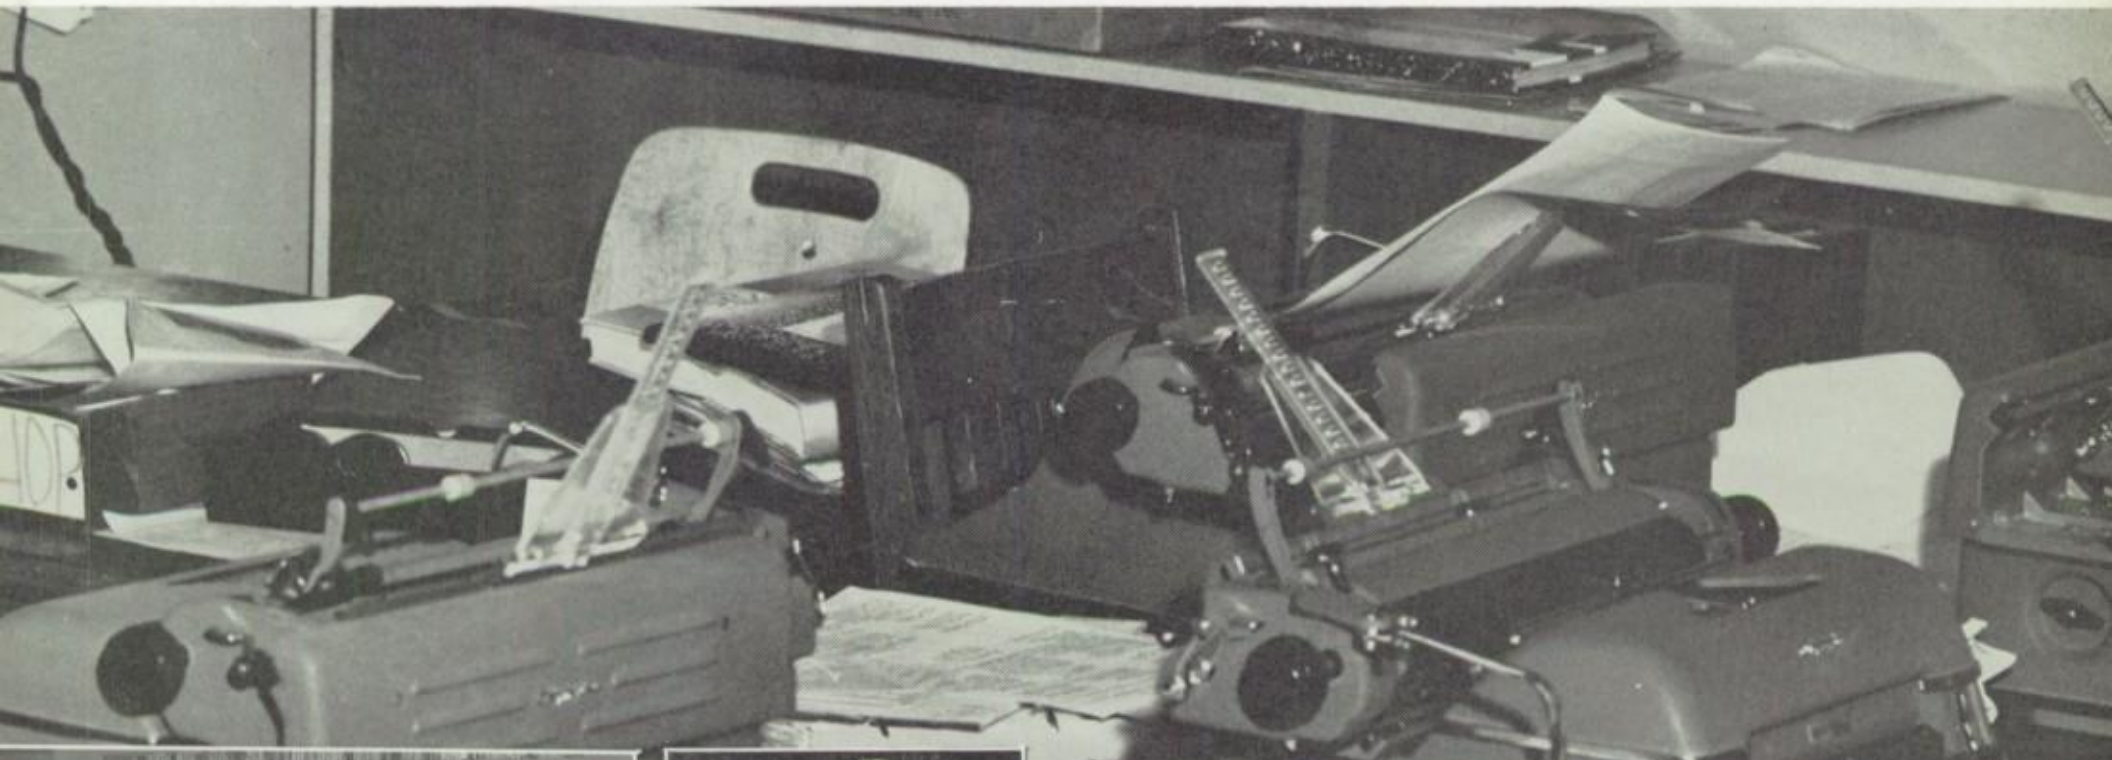
Clutter, clutter, clutter in a journalism lab where more than fifty people work (?) seemed inevitable as editors D. McGee and D. Meunier (upper left) supervised all activities on the ORANGE AND WHITE. On the editorial staff (upper right) were J. Timken, advertising; K. Hafer, classes, J. Schaffer, associate editor; J. Asachika, organizations; C. Benway, administration; P. Allen, copy; S. Wisen, girls' sports; P. Stewart, activities; R. Broughton, layout; C. Cabrera, boys' sports. On the art staff were C. Peabody, cover; B. Roode, and S. Keeling, design. Sales were in the hands of C. Musch, S. Wisen, B. Hart, J. Timken, B. Chadwick, C. Benway and L. Kearney, manager.
Indispensable writers were K. Trigg, C. Shipe, L. Todd and D. Nelson (bottom left). Staff members were K. Burbridge, C. Hartford, B. Hart, J. Smith, B. Chadwick, L. Shoemaker, E. Adams, C. Winn, J. Haley, R. Dowdy. In conference with Roland Speth are J. Schaffer, D. Meunier, R. Dowdy, Mr. R. W. Bohrer, D. McGee, J. Haley, J. Asachika. Not pictured are M. Clarke and Sarah Smith.

Contributing to the general state of confusion, THE REFLECTOR staff members assemble the paper even on Dutch-Irish day (upper left). First semester editors were L. Todd and C. Shipe, both prize winning journalists in the county. Nan Miller and Fred Kinner (bottom center) were the editors second semester. Mrs. Jeanette Christopher and Mr. Dick Bohrer kabitz in an "off" moment. Both advised THE REFLECTOR this year. In the staff box (center left) are M. Deadrick, features; Mr. Bohrer; S. Kinard, exchanges; S. Flores, girls' sports; L. Clarke, J. Shaw, girls' sports; K. Trigg, features; L. Greene, features; L. Todd, editor; L. Zippwald, business; A. Wheeler, art; D. Nelson, boys' sports; S. Butler, news; J. Sarazin. In front are J. Ziegler, prize-winning photographer; D. Kirkpatrick, circulation; F. Kinner, editor, S. Silka, features and managing editor. Checking proofs (lower right) are D. LeVier, S. Flores, M. Drumm, L. Zippwald, A. Wheeler, P. Day, L. Clarke, J. Markuson, N. Miller. Standing are D. Kirkpatrick, J. Sarazin, T. Minor, B. Dick, M. Deadrick, L. Greene, J. Ziegler, F. Kinner. Not pictured are A. Curry, W. Leetz and D. Monterisi.



Though the 1960 ORANGE AND WHITE yearbook is completed, memories will linger on. We want to salute the following faithful staff members for their dependable dependability. Jane Asachika, picture editor, we remember for pictorial field trips with Gene Malcom, photographer, and for the help she gave so willingly. MACBETH to Sandra Keeling will long be a memory of mood, mystery, and artwork on division pages with flames worked into every design. The design of the book is the product of her imagination.

Carol Peabody fired us off to a burning start. When she turned in her sketch of the cover, deliberation was no longer necessary. The cover was finished. Larry Lucas did the lettering on the cover.

Pat Stewart, our negative searcher, was sent on many safaries through the boxes, envelopes, and piles of negatives for one small negative many, many times. She always came out victorious and we applaud her "Barnum and Bailey" performance in time of need.

Jake Ziegler's picture which won first prize in the University of Southern California's journalism contest appears on page 61.

Karen Trigg, Carol Shipe, Doug Nelson, and Linda Todd—who should be writing this—we would like to thank you for your help with the copy. Carol, droopy-eyed from a long session of burning the midnight oil, wrote copy for the clubs, activities, and even tried her hand at cross-country copy. Doug Nelson blazed through banners, copy, and captions for the sports sections. Karen Trigg wrote the general copy throughout the book and Linda sandwiched some banners in between acts of the senior play.

After hearing us roar, "We want an ocean scene," Jim Haley waded out into the cold Pacific one cool night, and caught the dynamic wave scenes which are used on the endsheets. To keep you from writing on them, we provided blank white sheets for autographs. Without Albert and James' photography, Wilton Studio's title page and John T. McInnis' printing we'd have been nowhere fast. Roland Speth's advice and cost-saving suggestions got us on the right track.

Judy Schaffer, assistant editor, DEADLINES will haunt you again next year just as they did us!

. . . AND WE THOUGHT WE'D GET TO GO HOME EARLY! . . .

Martha,
You're a real nice girl. I wish you
the best of luck
and all the happiness
in the world.
Carol Rohrs

Martha
Thanks ever so much for all the help in American Democracy. It sure was "handy" having you in front of me.
Hope you have loads
and loads of luck and success
Klaire Hunter

Martha,
It has been real nice knowing you these past two years. I wish you all the happiness in the world.

always,
Merleen Reel
(fellow choir member).

Martha,
To one of my closest friends,
I wish the best for you.
I enjoyed having you as a friend
for my school years.
Because I hope to see you after
I guess I say good-bye for now.

Thank you for being
my friend,
Your friend,
Jesse

Martha,
It has been real sweet knowing you
Sharon
